

Recommended Read – Mrs Bell – Rosie’s Holiday by Rachel Pank

“I don’t want to go on holiday!” said a very small girl in a very loud voice. It was Rosie. “I like my own room. I like my own garden. And.....I like you all!” she bellowed to the cats next door.

Rosie loves the security of her own home, garden, toys and the cats next door. She does not wish to go on holiday, especially as all the things she loves and wants to take with her won’t fit in the car. But as soon as she arrives and discovers the sea, the boats and the beach, she finds being on holiday is wonderful – and doesn’t want to come home!

This book was a favourite of my daughters when she was small, who memorised it off by heart. The beautiful illustrations flood the page in colour and detail making it a favourite in our house.

Come and find this in the Recommended Read section of our school library.
